THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Creating exceptional experiences for a lifetime.

In January of 1785 — two years after the Revolutionary War — the Georgia legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia. In founding the nation's first state university, the legislature also gave birth to the American system of public higher education. Over the past 220 years, Georgia and its university have grown together as partners in a burgeoning prosperity that has made the University a fast-track contender for educational pre-eminence. With more than 33,400 students, a work force of more than 9,000 and an annual budget of over $1.4 billion, the University of Georgia is Georgia's largest, oldest and most comprehensive educational institution. Widely recognized for excellence in instruction, research and public service, the University has moved into the ranks of America's foremost public universities.

5	According to the Open Doors 2012 list, Georgia ranked fifth in the nation in the number of students who participate in summer and other short-term study abroad programs.
9	The University of Georgia College of Veterinary Medicine was ranked 9th in the most recent U.S. News and World Report ranking of colleges of veterinary medicine.
13	The UGA school of law is ranked 13th among the top public law school's in the nation, according to U.S. News and World Report's 2014 edition of America's Best Graduate Schools
14	Kiplinger Magazine ranks UGA 15th in its 2013 list of the "100 Best Values in Public Colleges."
19	U.S. News & World Report ranks the Terry College's BBA program 19th among public business schools.
20	U.S. News & World Report's 2013 "Best Colleges" edition has UGA ranked 21st among public universities.

MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Gameday Media Services
The sports communications office provides notes, statistics and media guides prior to home matches. These are also available online. Results and box scores will be distributed following each home match.

Match Coverage
While we do not credential for home matches, please contact Jen Galas in the sports communications office if you plan to cover a home match.

Interviews
Georgia coaches and student-athletes are available for interviews by request following each home match. Midweek and non-gameday interviews are arranged by request and occur following practice or after strength and conditioning sessions. Please submit requests 24 hours in advance. Phone interviews can also be arranged. Please contact Jen Galas in the sports communications office by phone at 706.542.7965 or by email at jgalas@sports.uga.edu.

GTV
GTV is your source for news and information on the Georgia Bulldogs. Highlights for each home match are also available through GTV.

www.georgiadogs.com
Georgia's official athletics website is www.georgiadogs.com. The site serves as the front door to the Bulldog experience. The website also serves as a link between the Georgia Athletic Association, members of the media and the Bulldog nation.

In addition to game recaps and features, www.georgiadogs.com is also the source for up-to-date stats, notes, rosters, player and coach bios, and historical data.

Fans are encouraged to check www.georgiadogs.com often as it is updated regularly to make sure that fans don't miss a minute of the action.

Southeastern Conference Media Information
SEC statistics, schedules and other information is available on the conference's official website www.SECsports.com.

Directions to the Ramsey Student Center
From Atlanta: Take I-85 to Highway 316 (signs to Athens). Continue on 316 approximately 40 miles. Turn right onto the Athens Bypass (Loop 10) southbound. Take the College State Road exit and turn left. At the second light, turn right onto River Road and the Ramsey Student Center and East Campus Parking Deck will be on the left.

Mission Statement
The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The Standard of Excellence
The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 81-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2013-14 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured seven national titles and six national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in equestrian, men's golf, gymnastics and women's swimming and diving. Since 1990, the SEC has won 163 team national championships for an average of more than six per year.

Florida's second consecutive gymnastics national title was the fourth straight for the league and 198th overall. The Georgia equestrian team brought home the national title marking the 13th consecutive year that a team currently in the SEC captured the title. Alabama won its second consecutive national championship in the sport of men's golf. Georgia's women's swimming team captured its sixth national title and second in a row. The Florida softball team prevailed in an all SEC final to win its first championship and second for the league.

Texas A&M won the league's 18th championship in women's outdoor track & field. Vanderbilt won the baseball title, the league's fourth in the last six years.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in nine of its 21 sponsored sports and in the top five in 13 of the 21 sports. Ten SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Auburn participating in the BCS Championship. Three men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament and eight women's basketball teams were also invited to the NCAA Tournament. The SEC had 10 teams advance to postseason play in baseball with Ole Miss and Vanderbilt advancing to the College World Series. With 178 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the seven team championships, 71 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 555 individuals were awarded with First-Team All-America Honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with more than 3,100 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, all 14 SEC schools placed in the top 55 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a second-place finish. Texas A&M placed 10th while Kentucky was 11th; Georgia finished 16th, Alabama 17th, LSU 24th, Arkansas 28th, Auburn 34th, South Carolina 35th, Tennessee 40th, Vanderbilt 45th, Missouri 46th, Mississippi State 52nd and Ole Miss 54th.

Jere W. Morehead
University President

Jere W. Morehead became the University of Georgia's 22nd president on July 1, 2013, having previously served as UGA's senior vice president for academic affairs and provost since 2010.

President Morehead's career covers a wide range of faculty and administrative roles. Prior to 2010, he served UGA in several key administrative assignments, including vice president for instruction, vice provost for academic affairs, associate provost and director of the Honors Program, and acting executive director of legal affairs. From 2003 to 2010, he served as the University's Faculty Athletics Representative.

As UGA President, he also serves as chair of the Georgia Athletic Association Board of Directors, chair of the UGA Research Foundation, a UGA Foundation trustee and a UGA Real Estate Foundation trustee. He has been appointed to a one-year term on the Committee of Research Intensive Public Universities by the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, and is included in Georgia Trend's 2014 Most Influential list.

President Morehead is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as editor-in-chief of the American Business Law Journal and previously held several other editorial board positions with the ABLJ.

He directed the UGA Law School's Advocacy Program from 1986 to 1995 at a time when the moot court teams he coached won international, national, regional and state championships. In 1995, he served as a visiting professor of business law at the University of Michigan.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award — UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence — the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award.

Morehead is a native of Lakeland, Florida. He moved with his family to Atlanta as a teenager, and enrolled at Georgia State University after graduating from high school at the age of 16. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1977. He entered the University of Georgia School of Law in 1977, where he graduated with a juris doctor degree at the age of 23 in 1980. After graduation, he served as an assistant United States attorney with the Department of Justice from 1980 to 1986. He is the first alumnus of UGA to be named president since Dr. Fred Davison in 1967.

Greg McGarity
J. Reid Parker Director Of Athletics

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida.

Since that time, McGarity has injected a program of imagination and innovation into the Georgia Athletic Association with emphasis on exploring new ideas and initiatives designed to move the organization forward in all areas of competition, academics, and service.

Among the many initiatives are implementation of a nutrition program for all sports, greater emphasis on customer service as well as community service, scoreboard upgrades enhancing the in-game experience for guests and patrons in all sports, and development of leadership programs fostering staff development. In addition, he has encouraged the experimentation of new ideas such as moving volleyball competition to Stegeman Coliseum and helping bring a sold-out concert (Jason Aldean, 65,000) to Sanford Stadium for the first time in stadium history. He was also instrumental in development and implementation along with Nike of a new brand identity program which brings consistency in use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals to Georgia sports teams.

He was named recipient of the 2013 Tom Osborne Award presented by the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA) for special achievement and contributions to advanced-practice sports nutrition. McGarity was appointed as the athletic director's representative to the SEC Executive Committee in 2013. A 1976 graduate of UGA's Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, McGarity is a 2012 inductee into the Grady Fellowship, a recognition program to honor those whose influence, achievements and service to the media professions have enhanced the reputation of the Grady College. He was also appointed in 2012 to the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, a position he will hold through 2016.

McGarity oversees a 21-sport athletics program supported by a budget of $99 million. Since becoming Director of Athletics, Georgia teams have won national championships in women's swimming and diving (2013 and `14) and equestrian (2014) and SEC championships in men's tennis (2011, '13, and '14), women's tennis (2013), women's tennis SEC Tournament ('14), women's swimming and diving (2011, '12, '13, '14), men's tennis SEC Tournament (2012 and `13), and two SEC eastern division titles in football (2011 and 2012). During that time 18 different Georgia teams have been ranked in the nation's top 20 and 10 in the top ten. Georgia's standing in the Learfield Director's Cup, which annually measures athletic teams success in NCAA championships, has improved from 20th in 2011 to 10th in 2013.

At UF, he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as both an associate and senior associate athletic director during his tenure. His duties at Florida included assisting the athletic director in daily operations of the department, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches, among other areas. McGarity was involved in the planning and supervision of several construction projects, including the expansion of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and the William Heavener Football Complex.

McGarity was a letterman on the 1973 Bulldog tennis team and following graduation began his professional career at UGA. After serving as a student assistant from 1973-77, he held positions as assistant sports information director and head women's tennis coach (1977-82), administrative assistant (1982-88), and assistant athletic director for facilities and event management (1988-92).

McGarity is married to the former Sheryl Holland, who graduated from UGA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science degree in education. They have one son, Alex, a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of Georgia.

2014 Season Outlook

No Grit, No Glory.

Georgia head coach Lizzy Stemke sat down to discuss what's in store for the 2014 season...

On the senior class…
"Our 2014 seniors are an extremely united group. They are driven and motivated to lead this team to our highest potential and they are not satisfied with anything but their best. They have been a part of setting new standards for our Bulldog program and they are ready and eager to surpass previously set goals."

On the talent returning for the 2013 season…
"We have a core group of returning athletes this season but many will be embracing new roles for the Dawgs this year. It is exciting to see the development of many of our younger players and we believe they are ready for the challenge."

On her favorite moments from last year…
"There were many highlights from the season last year but two of the most memorable for me will be the win against #15th ranked Kentucky in the Coliseum on ESPN and of course Selection Sunday hearing Georgia being called up for the NCAA for the first time since 2004. Those are both great milestones to reinforce that the program is heading in the right direction and that all of the hard work is paying off."

On the newcomers…
"We will have some fantastic athleticism joining our roster in 2014. All of our newcomers will provide some versatility of options and each of them is in a position to compete right away for playing opportunities. Devan, Kendall, Maddie and Cassidy are all coming from very competitive backgrounds and they join our group as prepared as any freshman group that we have had in four years."

On building off the success from last season…
"We hit a number of our season goals in 2013 but we have a new group with new goals in 2014. Every year we raise the bar with our season expectations and this season will be no different."

On the goals for the season…
"Our goals are always centered on the process. We have preseason goals, SEC goals, and NCAA tournament goals. We expect to make the NCAA tournament and put ourselves in position to make a great postseason run."

On the nonconference schedule…
"Our non-conference schedule is very important for postseason play, so preseason goals include winning preseason tournaments. We have a great lineup of matches that will expose our team to many different styles of play. This diversity of schedule will give us the opportunity to prepare for a tough SEC schedule."

On the SEC schedule…
"The SEC schedule includes playing the top-five ranked SEC teams from 2013 twice. We know the recruiting in the SEC continues to get stronger and so across the board we expect that the competition to be at an even higher level than last year."

On the strengths of the team…
"The biggest and most exciting strength of this team will be the diversity in our offense. We have many players who can score. We also have raised the bar on the expectations and this team is prepared to be gritty in order to gain every inch. The offseason training has been fierce and they have a chip on their shoulder to get out there and prove that they are stronger and more experienced than any other previous years."

On the setters…
"Kaylee Kehoe is our returning setter who will bring speed and experience to the floor. Kaylee takes some great, calculated risks on the floor and her connection with our attackers has really come together in the last two seasons. Kendall Kazor is our freshmen setter that brings size and a great volleyball IQ to the game. Although raw, Kendall has a high level of experience and athleticism that will be exciting to see develop. Both setters are winners and their leadership will be crucial for our season."

On the attackers…
"We have a great mix of attackers in our lineup this season. We will have some great experience at the front line with Tirah Le'au, Lauren Teknipp, and Jasmine Eatmon whom all saw significant playing time and impressive numbers last season. We will also add to the group some fantastic athleticism and versatility with returning players Megan Spencer, Amanda Dachs, and Desiree McCray all who have been with us for a year or two but will have great opportunities for increased roles in 2014. Also included in that group are freshmen Maddie Lobenstien and Devan Porter who will provide great depth at the pin. Each of these players provides our court with different strengths and will make our offense a hard one to stop."

On the middle blockers…
"We continue to get more physical in the middle and we are very excited about the dynamic duo of Jasmine Eatmon, whom gained All SEC freshmen honors in her first year on the court, and the addition of Desiree McCray, whom will have an increased role this coming season. Both middles are incredibly offensive and will bring much experience and physicality defensively."

On the defensive specialists…
"Our ball control and grit from our defensive specialists will be exciting to watch this year. Between Gaby Smiley, Elle McCord, and Cassidy Anderson we could see all three of them on the court throughout the year."

On playing matches in Stegeman Coliseum this year…
"We have decided to play two midweek matches this year in Stegeman Coliseum. We are hoping to showcase some great SEC matchups to make each an exciting event for our players and fans."

On why fans should come out to watch the team…
"This group is the most competitive group we have had here at Georgia and they will fight for the G on their jersey at every point. They are committed to the process and the work that it takes to be great on and off the court. Fans will feel this electricity from the stands and will be back for more!"

Lizzy Stemke

Head Coach • Fourth Season • Record: 47-45
Wisconsin, '04

Lizzy Stemke was named head coach of the University of Georgia women's volleyball program on Dec. 22, 2010. Stemke, the sixth head coach at Georgia since the program's inception in 1978, comes to Athens having spent four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska.

Stemke's third season in Athens was a historic one, as the program reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2004. She guided the team to a 22-10 record, its best record since 1994 and posted a 3-2 win over then-No. 15 Kentucky, Georgia's first win over a ranked team in the Stemke era. The Bulldogs finished fourth in the SEC with an 11-9 record. Under her leadership, Brittany Northcutt was named to the All-SEC team, while Lauren Teknipp was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-Region team.

Stemke led the Bulldogs to an overall record of 14-16 in her second season with the Bulldogs. The record included eight wins over SEC opponents. She also coached Jasmine Eatmon to the SEC All-Freshman team and two SEC Freshman of the Week honors. Stemke also led the Bulldogs to a season-sweep of Alabama and Mississippi State and wins over LSU and Missouri. The win at LSU was the first win in Baton Rouge for a Bulldog team since 2001. The team also took perennial league powers Tennessee and Kentucky five sets.

In her first season at the helm of the Bulldogs in 2011, Georgia went 11-19 overall including a 7-13 record in Southeastern Conference play finishing tied sixth in the league.

A former All-American and U.S. National Team member, Stemke helped guide the Huskers to a 116-15 record and four NCAA Volleyball Championship appearances during her time with the program. In Big 12 play from 2007-10, the Huskers went 72-8 with three Big 12 titles.

Stemke's roles at Nebraska included serving as the co-recruiting coordinator, offensive coordinator, setter training, video coordinator, academic and community involvement liaison, and assisting with summer camps and coaching clinics. She played a major role in the recruitment of a pair of top-10 recruiting classes, including the 2009 class that was ranked second nationally by Prepvolleyball.com. Her contributions to NU's success were noticed as she was named one of the country's top-10 assistant coaches by Volleyball Magazine in February of 2010.

Stemke coached two All-American setters at Nebraska in Sydney Anderson and Rachel Holloway. In 2009, Anderson became a two-time All-American, averaging 11.53 assists per set to help Nebraska to a sixth consecutive NCAA Regional Final. In 2008, Anderson earned second-team AVCA All-America honors ranking eighth nationally in assists at 11.60 per set, as the Huskers replaced four All-Americans from the previous season. In Stemke's first year at NU, the Huskers finished in the top three nationally in assists per set (16.42) and hitting percentage (.327) while Holloway finished her college career ranking ninth nationally with 13.58 assists per set.

Prior to Nebraska, Stemke was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina from 2005-06. At UNC, Stemke served as setters' coach, handled opponent scouting and video exchange, recruiting, team travel and community outreach. In 2005, the Tar Heels won the Atlantic Coast Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Stemke also has additional experience coaching both at the collegiate and club levels. Since 2007, she has worked with setting and defensive clinics at the Nebraska Volleyball Academy while also assisting with numerous tryouts and summer camps with USA High Performance. Stemke spent the 2003 season as a volunteer assistant at the University of Central Florida, and the Knights won the Atlantic Sun Conference championship and reached the round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history before finishing with a 23-7 record.

During her time in Florida, Stemke also co-founded the Team Orlando Volleyball Club and acted as its head recruiter and setter and defense clinic coordinator. She has also spent time working with the Triangle Setting Academy, the Wisconsin Power Volleyball Club, the All-American Volleyball Camps and Next Level Volleyball Camp.

Playing Experience:
Stemke enjoyed a distinguished career at the University of Wisconsin from 1998 to 2001. A three-year starter for the Badgers and team captain from 2000-01, she helped Wisconsin to a 112-23 record, a pair of Big Ten titles and an NCAA runner-up finish in 2000. One of only three two-time AVCA All-Americans in Wisconsin history, she ranked fourth nationally in assists as a senior in 2001, with 13.72 per game when she was named Big Ten Player of the Year. She was recruited to Wisconsin by current Nebraska head coach John Cook, whose last year as Badgers' head coach was 1998.

Following her collegiate career, Stemke spent two years with the U.S. National Team. In 2002, she was a member of the silver medal-winning team at the World Championships. She also helped the U.S. team win a bronze medal at the 2003 Pan-American Games. After her time with the national team, Stemke spent two seasons playing professionally. In 2003, she was named the Most Valuable Player of the Puerto Rican League. She then spent one season playing in the Pro A League in France.

Stemke earned her Bachelor of Arts in Communications degree from the University of Wisconsin in 2004.

Family:
The former Lizzy Fitzgerald, she is married to Kevin Stemke and the couple are the parents to two children, Kerrigan Jane and Edmund Gustav. Kevin played collegiate football at the University of Wisconsin from 1997-2000 and was named the inaugural winner of the Ray Guy Award in 2000 as the nation's top punter. He went on to play professionally from 2001-04 with five organizations most notably the Oakland Raiders in 2002 and the St. Louis Rams in 2004.

Stemke comes from a family heavily involved in college athletics. Her father, Billy Fitzgerald, played baseball and basketball at Tulane from 1967-69 and is in the school's athletic hall of fame. Her older brother, Edmond, played basketball at Ole Miss from 1992-94, while her older sister, Meg, played volleyball at Florida from 1992-95 and was the head volleyball coach at Central Florida until 2007. Her youngest brother, Robert, played baseball at the University of Tennessee from 2002-05.

Josh Lauer

Associate Head Coach • Fourth Season
Washington - St. Louis, '99

Josh Lauer enters his fourth season as a member of the Georgia volleyball staff. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in January of 2014 after spending three seasons as an assistant coach of the Georgia volleyball team. His primary responsibilities with the Bulldogs include serving as recruiting coordinator, coordination of blocking and defense and opponent scouting.

Since his arrival, Georgia has seen its blocking totals increase each year. The Bulldog defensive front has seen the total number of blocks increase from 245.5 in his first year to 275 this past season. Georgia middles averaged 2.3 blocks per set in 2013, good enough for fifth in the SEC. Elena Perri ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in blocks per set, averaging 1.04 in 2013.

With the help of Lauer's guidance, the Georgia volleyball program has taken great strides, making its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2004 this past season. Georgia also put together its first 20-win since 2002 and recorded the most wins in a season since 1994.

Prior to coming to Georgia, Lauer spent the three previous seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Alabama where he helped the Crimson Tide land its first top-30 recruiting class and a trio of high school All-Americans in 2010.

Lauer joined the Bulldogs in January of 2011 having spent the three previous seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Alabama where he helped the Crimson Tide land its first top-30 recruiting class and a trio of high school All-Americans in 2010.

Prior to his stint in Tuscaloosa, Lauer spent four years as the head coach at the University of Missouri - St. Louis where he took his team from the bottom of the conference to a top five standing. The Tritons put together their first 10-plus conference match winning season in Lauer's final year after managing just four Great Lakes Valley Conference wins when he began in 2004.

Throughout his tenure at Missouri - St. Louis, Lauer's squads collected numerous team and individual accolades including the American Volleyball Coaches Association Academic Award, the Great Lakes Valley Conference Sportsmanship Award, one ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Third Team honoree and several all-conference and academic all-conference selections.

Lauer's coaching career got started at the club level where he spent eight years with the St. Louis CYC Volleyball Club. He had three top-five national finishes in the open division at the United States Junior Olympic Volleyball National Tournament and two additional top 20 finishes. More than 20 of Lauer's club team players were recruited and played at the NCAA Division I level.

An original native of York, Pa., Lauer is a 1999 graduate of Washington University - St. Louis where he earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry with a minor in religious studies. He is married to the former Debra Reckase. They have two children, Eli and Jonah.

Colleen Bayer

Assistant Coach • Third Season
Wisconsin, '01

Colleen Bayer is in her third season as an assistant coach for the University of Georgia. Bayer's on-court training responsibilities include the training of Georgia's pin hitters and passers and assists in the coordination of the offense. Off the court, Bayer is the liaison to academics, strength and conditioning and nutrition. She also serves as the director of camps, community outreach and alumni relations and helps freshmen make the transition to college.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Bayer spent seven seasons as the assistant coach at Wisconsin. While there, she assisted with recruiting efforts, academics, alumni relations, camps and team development.

Bayer was a four-year letter winner at Wisconsin from 1995-98. She played her first two seasons as a defensive specialist and back-up setter. Bayer took over the starting setter job as a junior and senior, earning All-Big Ten honors in 1997 and 1998. She was also a two-time AVCA All-District 2 selection and was named to the 1997 and 1998 NCAA Regional All-Tournament teams, leading the Badgers to top-eight finishes. Bayer was the Badgers' team captain in 1998 and also earned two Academic All-Big Ten honors. With Bayer setting, Wisconsin won the 1997 Big Ten Championship and finished second in 1998.

Following her collegiate career, Bayer played with the United States Professional Volleyball league. She was a member of the USPV Dream Team in 1999-2000. Bayer played professionally with USC-Muenster in Muenster, Germany, in 2000 before returning to play one year with the Minnesota Chill of the USPV. She served as the captain of the Chill, which won the 2002 USPV league title.

Bayer served as an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Sting Volleyball Club in 1996 and with the Wisconsin Select Volleyball Club in 1997. In 2000, Bayer worked as an assistant coach with the 16-1 team of the Sports Performance Volleyball Club. Her team finished ninth in the country and won the AAU National Championship.

Bayer was the head freshman coach and varsity assistant coach at St. Charles (Ill.) East High School in 2001, aiding the varsity squad to the Illinois state championship. Since 2002, she worked at the Great Lakes Center in Aurora, Ill., as a sales assistant and office manager. A native of Pewaukee, Wis., and a graduate of Catholic Memorial High School in Waukesha, Wisc., Bayer graduated from Wisconsin in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in human development and family studies. She and her husband, Dave, are the parents of three children: Max, Ben and Samantha.

Brian
Muesenfechter
Volunteer Assistant Coach • First Season
Lewis, '11

Brian Muesenfechter will serve as the volunteer assistant coach for the Georgia volleyball team in 2014. Muesenfechter comes to Georgia having served as the graduate assistant coach for the men's volleyball team at Missouri Baptist University since 2011.

As a graduate assistant at Missouri Baptist, Muesenfechter's responsibilities included planning practice, developing scouting reports, recruiting and budgeting for team travel. During his time there, he helped lead the team to a 17-win season and No. 3 national ranking in 2012 after winning just eight matches in 2011. In 2013 MBU finished with an 18-8 recorded before reaching 20 wins in 2014. Muesenfechter also coached two players to NAIA All-American status. Additionally, he coordinated men's and women's summer camps for Missouri Baptist.

Since 2012, Muesenfechter has coached volleyball at Christian Brothers College High School in St. Louis, Missouri. As the assistant coach for the varsity team, he helped lead the team to a runner-up finish at the Missouri State Volleyball Championship in 2013. He also helped two players earn All-Metro honors in 2013.

As a club coach for High Performance St. Louis Volleyball Club since 2007, Muesenfechter helped the 18 Gold Team to qualify for Junior Nationals. From 2012-13, he served as the head coach for the 18U Navy Team, where he coached five players who are now playing collegiately.

Muesenfechter played collegiately for Lewis University from 2008-11. A four-year starter for Lewis, Muesenfechter served as the captain in 2011 before being voted the Most Valuable Player by his teammates. He was named the Defensive Player of the Week in 2011. As a player, he helped Lewis to a top-15 ranking in each of his four years and three 20 or more win seasons.

In 2008, Muesenfechter played for the United States Junior National Team, which placed third at the North, Central America and Caribbean Volleyball Confederation qualifier in El Salvador.

Prior to his collegiate playing experience, Muesenfechter played for the High Performance St. Louis Volleyball Club from 2003-2007. His time with High Performance culminated with a National Championship in 2007. While playing for High Performance, he was named an All-American and was a Fab 50 Selection in 2007.

Muesenfechter graduated with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Lewis in 2011 before earning his M.B.A. from Missouri Baptist in 2014.

2013 Season Recap

Head Coach Lizzy Stemke took the Georgia volleyball team, which finished with a 22-10 record, to new heights this past season, setting milestones along the way. Among the highlights was reaching the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2004, recording its first 20-win season since 2002, earning the most wins (22) since 1994, recording the most Southeastern Conference wins (11) since 1995 and defeated then-No. 15 Kentucky at home in front of nearly 2,000 people and a nationally televised ESPN audience in Stegeman Coliseum.

The Bulldogs started its season by winning 11 of its first 13 matches, with their only losses coming at the hands of nationally ranked Nebraska and Kansas. Georgia picked up its first Southeastern Conference win of the season at LSU, marking the second time in as many years that the Bulldogs won in Baton Rouge.

After a setback to Texas A&M, Georgia went on to win its next three SEC contests, picking up wins over Tennessee, Ole Miss and South Carolina. Georgia entered its toughest stretch of the season following the wins, playing at No. 2 Florida, at No. 18 Missouri, at Arkansas before hosting No. 15 Kentucky. After falling in the first three matches of the stretch, the Bulldogs earned a thrilling 3-2 win over No. 15 Kentucky, marking Stemke's first win over a ranked team since arriving at Georgia.

The Bulldogs followed the win by winning two of its next three matches, including a match at Tennessee, securing their first win in Knoxville since 2001 and their first season sweep of the Lady Vols since 1997.

Georgia ended the regular season by winning five of its final seven matches, including two on the road at Ole Miss and Mississippi State. During the run, the Bulldogs earned a 3-1 win over Auburn at home to close out conference play.

On Dec. 1, the team gathered at Stemke's home to watch the NCAA Selection Show to await their tournament fate. The team didn't have to wait long, as Georgia was one of the first teams to learn its destination. The Bulldogs were selected to travel to Durham, N.C., to take on American University in the first round.

Georgia's best season in recent history came to a close against American, as it fell 3-0 to the Eagles. American went on to defeat nationally seeded Duke to advance in the tournament.

The season was also highlighted by several individual accomplishments, as Brittany Northcutt became just the 16th player in program history to amass over 1,000 kills in a career, helping to her all-conference honors and becoming the first Bulldog to earn a spot on the All-SEC team since 2010. Allison Summers recorded 528 digs on the season, bringing her career total to 1,707, which ranks second all-time.

Gaby Smiley was named to the All-SEC Community Service Team and Lauren Teknipp received CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, becoming the first player to do so since 2010
